

Enriching your executive experience

Situational Awareness and Self Awareness: The Intersection of leadership

John Ambery

Psy.D., Leadership Instructor, Psychologist, and Executive Coach

May 2, 2017

7:30 P.M. – 9:00 P.M.

The James L. Allen Center

Explore a unique leadership framework based on alignment of values, intentions, behaviors and your environment. Learn how situational awareness and self-awareness intersects to maximize your professional and personal effectiveness. Examine the critical roles feedback and continuous learning play in your leadership development, and apply this framework to build a pathway toward impact and fulfillment through authentic leadership.

Northwestern | Kellogg